KC WOMAN PLEADS GUILTY TO ROLE IN COUNTERFEITING $57,000

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., woman pleaded guilty in federal court today to her role in a conspiracy to produce $57,000 in counterfeit $20 and $100 bills.

Tera Shanae Eason, 31, of Kansas City, pleaded guilty before U.S. District Judge Ortrie D. Smith this morning to the charge contained in a March 4, 2005, federal indictment.

By pleading guilty, Eason admitted that she conspired to create $57,000 in counterfeit currency between March 2004 and Dec. 13, 2004. Eason admitted that she used a personal computer to scan images of United States currency and then printed those images onto paper with the intent of passing the counterfeit currency as if it were genuine. Eason also admitted that she possessed reproduced $20 and $100 bills between April and Dec. 16, 2004, Graves said.

Eason is the second defendant to plead guilty in this case.

On Sept. 2, 2005, James L. Ragsdale, 26, of Kansas City, pleaded guilty to illegally obtaining approximately $1,000 in counterfeit $20 bills in September 2004, knowing that the money was counterfeit. Ragsdale also admitted that he used the counterfeit currency to make narcotics purchases in Kansas City and St. Joseph. In making the purchases, Ragsdale admitted that he intended to defraud those who accepted the counterfeit currency by presenting it as if the counterfeit currency were genuine Federal Reserve Notes of the United States Treasury.

Under federal statutes, Graves explained, Eason may be subject to a maximum sentence of up to 30 years in federal prison without parole, plus a fine up to $500,000, and Ragsdale may be subject to a maximum sentence of up to 20 years in federal prison without parole, plus a fine up to $250,000.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney John E. Cowles. It was investigated by the Kansas City, Mo., Police Department, the St. Joseph, Mo., Police Department, the Leawood, Kan., Police Department and the United States Secret Service.
